MARRIED.

A marriage of interest was celebrated June the 28th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Butler when Mr. Joseph Gaudet, a popular and prosperous business man of Lake Charles, La; claimed their daughter, Miss Mary Lee Butler, for his fair young bride.

Rev. S. E. McFadden, pastor of the Presbyterian church, read a very impressive ring ceremony which made them one, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride was attired in a gray taffeta silk coat suit, with hat and gloves to match. Never did this young girl look more lovely, standing in front of a bower of drooping lillies and ferns, leaning on the arm of one to whom she so recently pledged her love with Miss Grace Sheppard, an intimate friend, from New Orleans at her side. Many valued and useful presents were given which were expressions of love and friendship for the fair young girl.

After cutting the bride's cake the young couple left for the crescent city amidst a shower of rice and best wishes from the many friends for their happiness and success on their journey through life.

A cordial welcome awaits them at Lake Charles their future home where they will begin the pleasure of house keeping.

Louisiana has won one of Mississippi's fairest daughters.

We note with interest that the first bank failure in Mississippi has occurred since the guaranty of bank deposits act went into effect a year and a half ago, and that all depositors in the defunct institution were promptly paid in full out of the guaranty fund maintained for this purpose. In connection, it is a noteworthy fact that in Oklahoma, where a similar law has been in operation for a number of years, that to date not a single depositor has lost a nickel thru bank failures in that state. There have been bank failures, of course, but in every case depositors have been paid out of the guaranty fund the full amount due them. In both these states these acts were bitterly opposed, but to us they appear to have been excellent pieces of legislation. We believe the farmer, or any other man, for that matter, has a right to demand that his money will be safe when deposits it in a bank, and so far these guaranty laws have served their purpose well.—The Progressive Farmer.

Dr. R. M. Butler upheld.

Jackson, Miss; July 1.—Following up the Hines County grand jury's commendatory report to Judge Potter relative to the State Insane Hospital management under Dr. R. M. Butler the board of trustees of that useful institution, in regular monthly session this afternoon, also reviewed conditions. Among other acts and resolutions adopted by the board was the following, which was given to the press for general information: "Be it resolved, that the board take this opportunity to indorse the action of Dr. R. M. Butler, superintendent, in discharging the nine attendants who would not co-operate with him in an effort to keep and main the hospital in a thoroughly sanitary condition.

"We find absolute harmony and a hearty spirit of co-operation exists in all respects between the superintendent and the several departmental heads, and that the affairs of the institution are being efficiently and economically administered.

As stated this afternoon by a member of the board, the duty of caring for and making comfortable 1,500 people, who are in many instances not only mentally but physically defective, imposes a severe strain, not only on their resources, but on the men directly responsible for the management.

Good Roads Picnic!

Liberty, Miss., Thursday, the 20th Day of July

Everybody Invited! Come and bring a Big Basket well filled with good things to eat. Bring the family; boost Good Roads!

Nothing builds up a country like Good Roads. They mean greater land values, greater increase of population, more to pay taxes, more to cultivate the idle acres, means consolidated and better schools, longer terms, better education; more to pay taxes means less taxes.

Good Roads will not only bring this, but will put you in closer touch with your neighbors, puts you closer to town, makes your teams more efficient, makes the loads lighter, and reduces the mud tax. Good Speakers, including Gov. Bilbo, invited. Good Music, Plenty of Refreshments and a good time insured to every one.

Remember the Date and Place—Liberty, Miss., July 20.

Good Roads Parade at 10 o'clock

Come, Boost your County and Good Roads.
